

PITTSBURGH INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY LAW ASSOCIATION

2018 INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY LAW STUDENT LEADERSHIP AWARD

The Pittsburgh Intellectual Property Law Association (PIPLA) is pleased to announce its annual Intellectual Property Law Student Leadership Award competition.

The Awards: Two $1,000 awards will be given, one to a law student at the University of Pittsburgh and the other to a law student at Duquesne University. Although the award has traditionally be given to a graduating student, all students meeting the criteria are encouraged to apply.

Eligibility Criteria: To be eligible, an applicant must:

- (1) Be a currently enrolled law student at either the University of Pittsburgh or Duquesne University;
- (2) Have completed or be currently enrolled in at least three Intellectual Property courses; and
- (3) Engage in at least one extra-curricular Intellectual Property-related activity or organization.

Selection Criteria: The award will be based upon the applicant's demonstration of leadership as reflected by:

- (1) Applicant's grades in the courses taken in the law school's Intellectual Property elective course concentration and the Intellectual Property courses in which the law student is currently enrolled;
- (2) Participation in student or professional organizations that are related to the development, education, or advancement of Intellectual Property. Particular weight be given to participation and level of involvement in PIPLA;
- (3) Participation in moot court competitions involving Intellectual Property issues;
- (4) Articles written on Intellectual Property issues submitted for publication in any medium; and
- (5) Clinical or other collaborative work involving Intellectual Property issues.

Although selection criterion (1) will apply to all applicants, the extent to which criteria (2) through (5) apply will vary from applicant to applicant. In other words, an applicant's having engaged in an activity identified in any of selection criteria (2) through (5) is a plus in the evaluation of the applicant for an award, but is not necessary to receive an award.

Submission Date: Any eligible law student who wishes to apply must complete and submit the attached Application form to the address indicated thereon no later than April 6, 2018.

Award Date: The awards will be presented to the winning applicants at the April 18, 2018 lunch meeting of PIPLA which will be held at the Hotel Monaco.

Application Forms: Copies of the attached Application Form can be obtained at www.piplaonline.org. All applicants must use the Application Form.
